

AgJunction and Fastline Media Group Partner at Farm Progress to Showcase Revolutionary New Wheelman

Wheelman delivers a simple, do-it-yourself autosteering system for under $3500

HIAWATHA, KS, August 28, 2018 — AgJunction Inc. (TSX: AJX), the Autosteering Company™, and Fastline Media Group (Fastline) are partnering at Farm Progress to showcase Wheelman™, AgJunction's new product that allows farmers to automatically and accurately steer farm equipment at a price that generates a payback in just one season, working as few as 250 acres. The USDA estimates that autosteering alone saves farmers $15 per acre each year.

“We are excited to partner with Fastline at Farm Progress to showcase AgJunction's revolutionary new Wheelman™ autosteering product, bringing Precision Ag, the technology used by the largest farm operations, within reach of millions of smaller farms,” said Dave Vaughn, AgJunction president and CEO. “And we're looking forward to demonstrating the simple, do-it-yourself installation of Wheelman™ on a 1974 John Deere purchased from the Fastline.com agriculture equipment site.”

Stop by the Fastline tent (#464 in the South Quadrant) at Farm Progress and learn the benefits of Wheelman™. Also, take the opportunity to get hands-on with Wheelman™, by performing a do-it-yourself installation on the 1974 John Deere 100 HP PTO tractor.

You can enter to win the 1974 John Deere 100 HP PTO tractor outfitted with a Wheelman™ powered by Whirl™ autosteering system, in-person at the Fastline tent.
